FALL 2023

Educating in the Spirit of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

“ It is an exciting time to be part of this incredible Seton community, and we are so thankful and feel blessed to be surrounded by the best! ”

Dear Alumnae, Parents, Students and Friends,

If you look around the community, you will see all of the positive Seton vibes that are everywhere around us! Our enrollment continues to grow, and the prayers, love and support from our alums and friends of Seton can be felt by every single student, staff member and administrator. It is an exciting time to be part of this incredible Seton community, and we are so thankful and feel blessed to be surrounded by the best!

We are inspired daily by the work ethic and the exceptional Catholic education that our students embrace. What's more, they are challenged inside and outside of the classroom to find their strengths and be a light in this world. Once they graduate, our alums are leaders who are empowered and make a difference in the world. Some of these exceptional Saints have gone on to start their own businesses. You can read on pages 4-9 how several alums have found great success as entrepreneurs and the path that led them to where they are today. A special thank you to Jenny Held Chasteen '77, Denise Emmett '78, Julie Emmett '81, Kelly Ziegler Koeller '83, Shannon Ziegler Visconti '88, Nancy Niemeyer Goins '87, Lynn Loftus Wambaugh '92 and Christy Geiger White '02 for sharing their journeys with us.

Sometimes an opportunity to do service for others helps you realize what your true passion is. Emily Berning '16 found many of her gifts and talents while she was a student at Seton, and those strengths grew through her activities, volunteering and at college. Read more on pages 20 and 21 about how blessed she feels to have been led to where she is today.

We are excited about the great news for taxpayers who donate to Seton! The state of Ohio passed a bill that allows you to take a dollar-for-dollar credit on your Ohio tax return when you make a gift to an approved Scholarship Granting Organization, or SGO. You can read more about the Seton Cincinnati SGO on page 10.

The school year is in full swing, and we are honored to have 197 new freshmen as part of the Seton sisterhood. We are so grateful to the Sisters of Charity, our alumnae, parents and friends who support Seton so that our students can continue to thrive within a well-rounded academic experience where they find several opportunities throughout the school year to grow. We look forward to seeing you at some of our events this year! Please keep Seton in your prayers as we continue to educate young women in the spirit of our patroness, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton.

Thank you!

SETON

Sponsored by the Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati

Seton High School, a Catholic community in the tradition of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, through the mission of the Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati, develops a diverse population of young women for a life of faith, service and leadership and engages them in achieving academic excellence in a college preparatory environment.

AN ENTREPRENEURIAL STATE OF MIND

Perseverance, confidence, empowerment and taking risks are just a few of the words that describe the mindset of women who have started a business of their own. Women have been venturing down the road of entrepreneurship and inspiring other women along the way for centuries. St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was one of these women. After heartache, hard work, making sacrifices and prayerfully putting her heart into what she knew God was calling her to do, she started the Catholic school system here in America and founded the Sisters of Charity. And just like Elizabeth Ann Seton, several Seton alums have discovered a passion or opportunity and headed down the same road. Hazard yet forward – taking risks and pouring their hearts into making a dream a reality. Their goal is success and their attitude is focused and positive. We talked to some of our inspiring alums who, like Elizabeth Ann Seton, had a passionate idea, and with hard work and a firm foundation of faith, made their dreams a reality.

From sweets to sweaters, healthy to horticulture to hard hats – this group of women runs the gamut.

While they have each had different dreams and challenges, they all have similarities, and we are honored to share some of the inspirational highlights in their journeys.

A PASSIONATE AND POSITIVE STATE OF MIND

“It started from something simple,” said Christy Geiger White '02, founder of Whirlybird Granola. “I could not find a type of granola without all the added sugar and fillers that still tasted good, so I started making my own for my family and to give to others as well,” she explained. “One of my best friends, Lindsey Euler Dewald '02, started The City Flea, and that’s where it all began. We sold Whirlybird Granola there for six years.” From there, the business grew very organically. “When I started, I was pregnant with my twins, and we went from baking granola in my home in 2011 to a rental kitchen space and eventually on to the commercial kitchen where we are now.” In the beginning, they sold three flavors of granola, which they still sell today. “Those three flavors are sold regionally across the Midwest,” said Christy. “And we now also provide two of the largest grocery retailers with their private label granolas as well. This makes up about 99% of our business. I never dreamed that we would have that kind of opportunity, and I am so grateful for it!”

In 1992, sisters Julie Emmett '81 and Denise Emmett '78 opened their own flower shop, Petals-n-Glass, in a quaint little shop on West 8th Street in Price Hill. The idea and steps to opening this shop sprouted slowly and unintentionally. “I was a graphic designer before I started in the flower business,” explained Julie. “I took a sabbatical from that career and was working in a flower shop in Covington. An opportunity arose to open a flower shop in Riverside.

The idea of a flower shop was a good one, but the location was not.” At that time, Denise had a successful business running a restaurant and saw the potential in the flower business. “So we found a location and decided to become florists,” Julie added. “It was hard at the beginning and there was a lot of trial and error. Denise used every opportunity in front of her to promote the business while I spent time in the shop focusing on customer service.”

When Lynn Loftus Wambaugh '92 quit her job as a teacher so that she could stay at home with her kids in 2004, she found herself becoming active in her community with moms clubs, leading outings around town and encouraging other moms to stay connected. “Through this, I found myself baking more and more. There was always a mom who needed a pick-me-up! Eventually my passion turned into something bigger.” she explained. “I was born on the 4th of July, and with that inspiration, my sister-in-law came up with the name, Firecracker Bakery.” For the next 12 years, Lynn worked in her home kitchen alongside her two kids, Jon and Kate; and then decided to venture out and work in a shared kitchen space. After two years, Lynn was literally bursting with ideas. “I was ready for the next step,” she explained. “Armed with experience, an excellent staff and an understanding of kitchen operations, I felt ready to open my own brick-and-mortar.” In January of 2018, she purchased what she calls her ‘happy place’ in Sharonville, Ohio, surrounded by a welcoming community.

Nancy Niemeyer Goins '87 had been working for an engineering firm when she was inspired to join the leadership team. It was an interesting time as the ownership of the firm was offered to be sold to another firm. “However, numerous issues had me exploring options to make a change in employment after the sale, most of which were with other industries,” explained Nancy. But nothing felt like it would be a good fit.

AN ENTREPRENEURIAL STATE OF MIND

“Luckily, I met with a few women in 2017 who started their own companies doing similar tasks that I had performed in my career, and it gave me the idea that I could do some type of consulting work – and here I am,” said Nancy, owner of N2G Consulting.

Being self-employed wasn’t something new for Shannon Ziegler Visconti ‘88, who has owned a real estate company with her husband since 1999. However, buying retail space and venturing into the fashion business with her sister, Kelly Ziegler Koeller ‘83, was a new adventure. “Kelly has always been a huge shopper. She has an extensive retail background and has always wanted to open her own store. I was excited about the possibility of opening our own shop,” said Shannon. Shop Charbon opened its doors in 2020 in Delhi, and it quickly became a west-side favorite. “It took about six months to build the store out and get it running, but it has been so worth it. We have been so excited to see the growth over these few years,” she added.

Jenny Held Chasteen ‘77 always dreamed of owning her own business. “My mom, Millie, was a huge supporter. She was a positive thinker and always told me to believe in my dream and not give up,” added Jenny, who also ran her own calligraphy business for six years when her children were very young. Millie passed away in 2010 at the age of 90, and six weeks later Jenny received a phone call that a space on Bridgetown Road that she wanted was available for lease. That space is where Jenny’s Homemade Cookies is today. It has since become a local gem with 65 cookie varieties that are all made preservative-free and of the finest ingredients, including pure butter, Belgium chocolates and pure vanilla. Jenny had run Jenny’s Homemade Cookies out of her home for nine years in addition to selling at Findlay Market for four years.

“I believe my mom put in a good word for me when she got to Heaven,” said Jenny, who added that her mom’s favorite cookie was the butter cookie with buttercream frosting. “I have fond memories of enjoying that cookie with my mom, while chatting and drinking coffee. When I opened my shop, I wanted to honor my mom by naming that cookie after her. The ‘Sweet Millie’ is our second biggest seller, right behind the chocolate chip.”

A GROWTH STATE OF MIND

Any road to a successful business comes with a unique set of challenges. Whether it's competition, growth or a global pandemic, there are always obstacles along the way. At Shop Charbon, online shopping is one of those hurdles. "Small businesses can't always beat the online pricing, so we have to find what it is that we can beat them on, and that's quality, customer service and community support," said Shannon, who believes that their company tagline of 'Fun, Fashion, Friends' reminds customers that the shop is meant to be a happy spot in everyone's day. One of the ways she feels that she and Kelly stay connected with customers is through social media. "People want to do business with real people, and Facebook Live and Instagram have helped us get to know people on a personal level, which has been fantastic," Shannon explained. It also has given them an avenue to help other small businesses and non-profits. "We really try to host as many events as we can to bring more value to Shop Charbon which has really brought us together as a community."

For Lynn, she admits that she had a hard time relinquishing some control. "One of my biggest challenges has been letting go of responsibilities and delegating key tasks to my team," said Lynn, who refers to her employees at Firecracker Bakery as the A-Team. "As we continued to grow, I learned that I could not be in charge of it all. Delegating has allowed me to focus on the most important aspects of the business, and in turn this has helped my team to use their talents and passions in a way that fits them best. It is awesome to see what people can do when you give them space!"

A large corporate cookie order is ready to be shipped across the country from Jenny's Homemade Cookies.

Jenny has found that one of her biggest challenges has been making decisions about the growth of the company. Her cookies are found at various special occasions and weddings year-round, and they are also shipped to literally every state in the United States and beyond, including several corporate orders with her largest one being 400 dozen cookies. "I've been challenged throughout the years when contemplating how big to grow," said Jenny, who is the mother of Leslie Chasteen Nienhaus '06 and Nick Chasteen, and also a grandmother to three.

After starting her own consulting company in 2017, Nancy was soon faced with the challenges of a global pandemic. "Most of my services involve connecting people through meetings, and for the last three years that has really taken on a different landscape," she explained. "Meeting face to face has returned, but the pandemic shifted a lot of mindsets in the business world and navigating that shift has been a challenge," she added. "As a sole proprietor, not only do you perform the work for the clients, but also handle all of the other aspects of the business from accounting to office cleaning."

"Flowers were plentiful when we first opened Petals-n-Glass, and most of our product was grown right here in the area," said Julie. "Most of the wholesale houses have since closed or moved out of town, and many of the farms have closed down due to real estate. Over the past 10 years most of our product comes from out of the country and has to be shipped in, so it can be a struggle to find product that customers want."

"Growth was absolutely my biggest challenge," said Christy. "Specifically forecasting and finding a balance on my Whirlybird inventory was and still can be hard. I needed to have enough to fill all of the orders, but I could not have too much or it would have to be disposed of or donated." But with growth comes gratitude. "This is always where I learned the most," she added.

A GRATEFUL STATE OF MIND

“The biggest blessing of owning my own business is the relationships I have with my team members, my customers and other entrepreneurs,” said Lynn. “Our Burst cookies are invited to so many gatherings – from baby showers to celebrations of life – so when our customers walk through the door, we feel honored that they have picked us to share life’s big moments!”

Kelly and Shannon of Shop Charbon share those sentiments. “The blessings for sure have been the people we have met as new customers as well as people, including many from the Seton community, that we have reconnected with,” said Shannon. “For me and Kelly, it’s not just about a sale. We want to make sure our friends are buying what they love and feel great wearing it! I can’t begin to tell you how many fantastic people from near and far come to see us. It is amazing and humbling,” she added.

“Meeting and connecting with so many businesses and individuals has been wonderful,” said Jenny. “Having such an amazing team of women in the shop that share the same high standards helps ensure that we are delivering nothing but the best for every customer and special event. In addition to these blessings, one of the greatest things we have been able to do through Jenny’s Homemade Cookies is to give back to the community,” she explained.

The flexibility factor is a big blessing for many entrepreneurs. Christy has literally worked and baked granola at all hours of the day and night over the years. “With having three kids, this business has allowed me to have the flexibility to make my own schedule, and that changes every day,” she explained. “Some days I am working from 4:00 a.m. to 7:00 a.m. and then not again until 8:00 p.m. and other days I can work during the daytime hours, but it is all about what works best for me and my family.”

Nancy agrees that flexibility is a blessing, but she said it can come with a price sometimes. Her children, George and Mary, are both in grade school. “Working on spreadsheets at 2:00 a.m. or scheduling email campaigns on Sunday at 6:00 a.m. isn't everyone's cup of tea, but it has allowed me to be able to volunteer more at my kids' school and with their sports teams and to be available to my family more when needed," she said.

Nancy Niemeyer Goins '87 enjoys coaching and family time.

Having a flower shop has allowed Julie and Denise to welcome relatives into the business from time to time. "Our family has helped out so much, and that support has been necessary for us to have a prosperous business. My nieces were able to work here during high school and college until they started careers of their own," said Julie. But her favorite part of the job extends to every family that they have ever done business with. "We have been able to help make people happy at some of the best times and ease their pain in some of the most difficult times."

AN INSPIRATIONAL STATE OF MIND

Hazard yet forward! From a group of incredible women who have found so much inspiration along their journeys, it's only fitting that they pass on encouragement and good advice. "Only pursue what you love," said Lynn. "Go after it with all your energy, put in the hard work and remain focused. Have a purpose, a story and a reason behind what you are doing."

Look beyond yourself. "Surround yourself with a support system," said Nancy. "Seek out mentors and professionals who can help you. Check out resources available because there are organizations within local areas that can help get you connected to mentors and funding."

Christy feels that you do not need to know it all before diving in as an entrepreneur. "You don't have to know every aspect about the business; you just have to know a little bit about everything and then connect with people that do know the specifics," she explained. "Don't be afraid to ask for advice or help. It will be very challenging at times, but you can do it!"

Success doesn't come overnight, and it can take time. "It took us years of hard work to create our successful business, so don't give up! Be kind to people and it will pay off," said Julie.

"Do your research," added Kelly. "Really dig deep and ask yourself if you are willing to put in countless hours and hours. It takes passion to open a business."

"It is never too late to start and live your dream," said Jenny. "After being a stay-at-home mom for 21 years I started my business at age 51." It also takes prayer. "Pray, pray, pray," she advised. "And then pray some more! Develop a plan and stick to it. Have the faith that God is right there with you. Be grateful for every step of the journey, including setbacks, because they are all teaching moments, and you will learn from them. If it is your dream, take a deep breath and go for it!"

SETON CINCINNATI SGO

Great news for Ohio taxpayers who donate to Seton! The state of Ohio passed a bill that will allow you to take a dollar-for-dollar credit on your Ohio tax return when you make a gift to an approved Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO), as long as your Ohio tax liability for 2023 is at least equal to your donation.

This spring, the Seton Cincinnati SGO - Scholarship Granting Organization was officially established and the impact will benefit both the donors and the students at Seton! Simply make a donation of up to $750 a person (or $1,500 a couple) to the Seton Cincinnati SGO and receive a dollar-for-dollar credit on your Ohio tax return. This is a nonrefundable tax credit. Your gift will help fund the tuition of students in need at Seton!

In order to receive the tax credit, make your check payable to the Seton Cincinnati SGO. You can also make a gift online at www.setoncincinnati.org. In order to receive the credit for 2023, donations need to be made by December 31, 2023.

"The SGO is an amazing opportunity for families to make a difference for students in need at Seton, and it will not impact the family finances! It is a win-win," said Jan Neumann '75, CPA.

If you file a married joint return, each taxpayer would need to make their own $750 contribution to claim the maximum of $1,500. Separate acknowledgement letters from Seton will be provided for documentation of your gifts.

This is a great way to make an impact for students who need financial assistance in order to attend Seton and as long as your Ohio tax liability for 2023 is at least equal to your donation, this won't cost you a penny! If you itemize your tax deductions, this also qualifies for a charitable contribution which helps to offset your federal income tax liability.

Thank you for considering a donation to the Seton Cincinnati SGO. Every gift will help fund a Seton education for students in need.

For more information, consult your CPA or tax advisor. Or visit <https://codes.ohio.gov/ohio-revised-code/section-5747.73>.

Thank you, Seton alumnae! We are so grateful to you for helping us raise $201,336 and WIN Girls' Schools Unite 2023! This was the 4th year for this campaign, and it was a huge success! We are so proud to work with Mercy-McAuley, Mount Notre Dame, St. Ursula, Ursuline and Notre Dame Academy to help raise awareness and financial support for our individual schools. Together, this group raised a combined $478,792 for all-girls' Catholic education! Save the date for next year's campaign which will take place April 22-24, 2024.

Rachel Schiller '17 and Jane Reiter '17

have had quite the sisterhood journey. From watching their brothers play baseball together in kindergarten at St. Antoninus, to Seton High School where they served on Student Council together, to the University of Dayton (Class of 2021), to the same leadership program at Fifth Third Bank to now, where they both have full-time roles and work at the Downtown location. Rachel is a digital marketing specialist and Jane is a credit analyst.

"Our life paths have constantly crossed, and I couldn't be more thankful," said Rachel. "We joke with our coworkers that it may not sound like we are on the same page when we talk, but believe us that we are."

These two alums both serve on the Young Professionals Business Resource Group (YPBRG) as leaders of the Employee Development committee. This business resource group provides opportunities to network with colleagues, perform community service, help develop talent pipelines and share insights and successes to the workplace. Their group specifically focuses on young professionals who are new to the bank, new to the corporate setting, recent graduates, or people who are still trying to navigate their career. This was the second year that Rachel and Jane co-lead the headshot event for hundreds of YPBRG members.

"It has been wonderful working at Fifth Third together over the past two years and it feels like we have been working together for much longer since our time on student government at Seton," said Jane.

"I think it's safe to say that a lot of our leadership skills were developed through Seton with the guidance of the incredible teachers and mentors," added Rachel. "I am forever grateful for the opportunities that Seton provided us and thankful for the impact it had on both of our life journeys. I can't wait to see where this crazy path called life takes us next!"

Alumnae Spotlight

Emily Berning '16

When Emily Berning '16 was a student at Seton High School, she was fully aware that she was in a very special place. As a freshman she sat wide-eyed in the auditorium near the beginning of the school year during an all-school awards ceremony where students were recognized for their academic and extracurricular activities. "I felt inspired at that moment to involve myself as much as possible in order to make the most of my time at Seton," said Emily.

And she never looked back. By the time she graduated, she played a meaningful role in StrongHer, National Honor Society, Campus Ministry, Art Club, Student Ambassadors, Varsity Dance and as one of the School Captains in our newly-created House Government. "I am so happy that I embraced each one of these opportunities because it allowed me to build relationships with students and teachers that I otherwise wouldn't have had the opportunity to connect with and become close to," she explained. "I also had so much fun planning things like pep rallies, StrongHer events, Spirit Day, all-school masses and so much more."

As a young alum, Emily has many recent memories from her time at Seton, and she feels that they have truly helped shape her into the strong young woman that she is. "Being able to attend an all-girls Catholic high school is truly such a privilege," said Emily, whose two sisters, Allison Berning Eberle '12 and Caroline Berning '18, are also proud Seton alums. "We were never short on the 'girl power' mentality, and I always felt encouraged and empowered by my classmates and teachers."

As a member of the nationally-ranked Seton Varsity Dance team, Emily cherished her time spent with Seton Athletic Hall of Fame coaches and incredible teammates. "I always looked forward to practices, competing and spending time with my teammates in and out of practice," she explained. "Thanks to my coaches, I was able to discover my passion for dance and learn what it means to work hard and be a good teammate and leader. I loved my time on the dance team so much, and I knew I wanted to continue to dance in college," added Emily, who started dancing at Seton in fifth grade and eventually went on to dance for one year at the University of Kentucky and four years at the University of Cincinnati, including during her first year of working towards her master's degree. "Dancing has given me so many opportunities to travel and make lifelong friendships. I wouldn't have been able to do any of it had it not been for the training, discipline and confidence that I gained from the Seton Dance program." Today, one of her favorite things to do in the fall is to cheer on our Cincinnati Bengals as a Ben-Gal Cheerleader. The 2022-2023 season was Emily's first year with the NFL. "I was blessed to earn a spot with the Ben-Gals, and I have met so many talented, smart and well-rounded women on the team," she said. "I am really looking forward to this next season and excited that another Seton alum, Carlie Jackson '18, will be dancing alongside me in her rookie season. Fingers crossed the season will end with a Super Bowl win!"

While dance still brings her so much joy to this day, Emily attributes her happiest high school memories – and what ultimately led to her career – to Seton's Campus Ministry and the service opportunities she had as a student. There was one service day in particular where she volunteered all day at BLOC Ministries in Price Hill. "Fast forward to when I was a UC sophomore at a service fair and saw the BLOC Ministries booth and a life-changing opportunity presented itself to me," Emily said.

BLOC Ministries was looking for volunteers for the women's home, Weightless Anchor, which is a safe haven that is open during daylight hours for women experiencing homelessness and battling substance use disorders. Many of these women have been victims of sex trafficking, rape and assault. Emily recalled her time at Seton volunteering with BLOC and knew she wanted to help. "These women have heartbreaking stories, and they need compassion and support,” she explained. “I realized that I wanted to have a career that allowed me to advocate for those who need it the most.” So she decided that after graduating with a business degree, she would apply at UC to earn her Master of Science in Nursing. “Thanks to the values that were instilled in me by my parents that were harvested at Seton and through volunteering, I am now able to advocate for others as a nurse.”

While Emily may have taken a little longer path to become a nurse, she knows that this is the right career. “I love being a nurse. Every single day I get to care for others and show them the light of Christ. While being a nurse comes with its challenges and difficult days, it is such a fulfilling career,” she said. “My prayer before going into work is for God to show me His love for my patients. I feel so blessed to have a career that allows me to work so closely with people and grow in my faith and trust in God.”

THIRTY-ONE WOMEN

Thirty-One Women is a unique scholarship made possible by the commitment of 30 women for one student each year. The women have been inspired by the mission of Seton High School and give one young woman the chance to attend Seton on a four-year scholarship. This young woman is chosen to become the Thirty-First Woman and is responsible for the same financial commitment as the other 30 women.
